Constable Adam Chornenki has demonstrated excellence in his policing duties through the many highway interdiction investigations he has initiated and conducted in 2003 in and around the Moosomin area. These proactive and self initiated investigations have led to significant drug seizures, disrupted organized crime groups, and provided police with vital criminal intelligence.

As a four year member of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, Constable Adam Chornenki has already made a considerable impact on crime in Saskatchewan, specifically in the area of drug investigations, and has set positive case law that was reinforced by the Saskatchewan Court of Appeal.

The work and dedication of Constable Chornenki has been recognized by peers, supervisors and the community alike. The Saskatchewan Association of Chiefs of Police would like to commend Constable Chornenki for his work by awarding him with the Excellence in Policing Services Award for 2003 in the category of Excellence in Performance.
