Saskatchewan Association of Chiefs of Police Extends Condolences to Tumbler Ridge Community

The Saskatchewan Association of Chiefs of Police (SACP) extends its sincere condolences to the victims, their families, and the entire community of Tumbler Ridge, British Columbia, in the aftermath of the tragic events of February 10, 2026.

Our thoughts are with all those affected by this devastating incident. Such events are deeply felt not only within the impacted community but across the broader public safety community as well.

On behalf of all SACP members, we also extend our heartfelt support to the emergency services personnel who responded with professionalism, courage, and compassion under extraordinarily difficult circumstances. We stand with you during this time of profound sorrow.

The SACP remains united with our policing and public safety partners across Canada as we collectively support those impacted and honor the resilience of the Tumbler Ridge community.
